History

Veryx Was Founded In 2002, By A Team Of Professionals With Deep Expertise In The Communications Networking Industry.

After The Global Dot-Com Crash Of 2001, Networking Technology Companies Who Until Then Had Access To Easy Funding Were Now Suddenly Heavily Constrained. Veryx Founders Set Out To Create Affordable Automated Test And Measurement Platform, At Substantially Lower Capex And Opex For Networking Equipment Manufacturers (Nems) And Telecom Networking Service Providers (Telcos/Nsps) Globally.

Beginning With Hewlett Packard (Hp) Networking Division As Its First Customer, Over The Past Twenty Years, Veryx Has Earned The Reputation Of Being A Reliable Partner To More Than 100 Customers Globally And Recognized By The Industry For Its Products And Services. The Company Is Privately Funded.

Our People

We Believe That Our Employees Are Our Greatest Asset And Our Biggest Competitive Advantage And Therefore Attracting, Developing And Sustaining The Best Talent Has Always Been An Area Of Focus.

We Provide A Nurturing Environment Where Talented And Innovative Individuals Get The Chance To Explore Varied Career Paths In A Challenging And Rewarding Journey. Visit Our Careers Page To Learn About Career Opportunities In Veryx.
